

1. Summary of the Survey

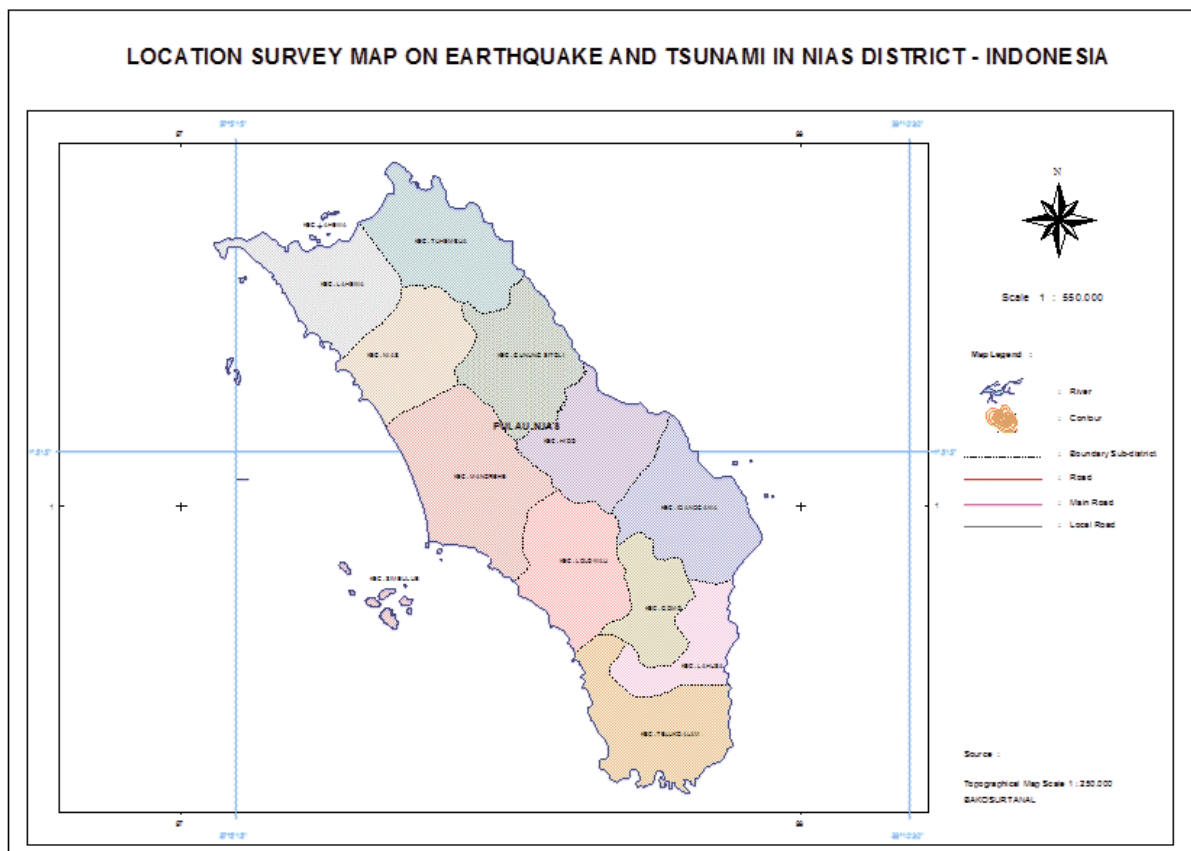

Earthquake at the bottom of the Indonesia Ocean has caused tsunami waves that destroyed part of Nanggroe Aceh Darussalam Province and Simeulue District; North Sumatra Province and Nias District. The total lost of life was estimated more than 100.000 inhabitants from this area. The infrastructures in both provinces such as buildings, roads, schools, hospital and other public facilities have also been damaged.

1.1 Objectives

The purpose of survey is to find out the information about the real condition of the inhabitants of Nias , Simeulue and West Aceh Districts after the occurrence of tsunami on December 26, 2004.

1.2 Target Area

1.3 Period of field survey

From 27th November 2005 to 16th December 2005

1.4 Sample and distributions

Target Schools

School Name	Sub District	Remarks
SDN Naibos	Teupah Barat	Public School
SDN Kuala Baru	Teluk Dalam	Public School
SDN 5 Teupah Selatan	Teupah Selatan	Public School
SDN 6 Lauke	Simeulue Tengah	Public School
SDN Lantik	Teupah Barat	Public School
SDN Kualo Umo , Ganting	Simeulue Timur	Public School
SDN Busung	Simeulue Timur	Public School
SDN Air Dingin	Simeulue Timur	Public School

1.5 Survey methodology

The survey was held in Nias and Simeulue Islands, two islands in the west of Sumatra mainland and West Aceh Districts. The respondents consist of primary school teachers and students, residents and government officers.

1.6 Contents of questionnaire

- Residents: reaction at the occurrence of tsunami, information during evacuation, knowledge about tsunami, countermeasures against natural disasters, etc.
- School children: awareness of natural disasters, knowledge about tsunami, communication within the family on natural disasters
- Teachers: curriculum to study natural disasters, educational materials.
- Government officers: training/seminar for natural disasters, countermeasures against natural disasters, potential sources and information channel.